BATTLE UNIONISM.
DRY LAWS TO STAY.
FITY POLICEMEN.
FOGS ARE BAD.

—By Arthur Brisbane—
(Copyright 1929, By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

GENERAL Smuts, from South Africa, traveling here, congratulates us on joining the League Court, and predicts that entrance into the League of Nations will be the next step.

He is a little ahead of time, even with the Court, for we are not in it yet. But his forecast of events is probably accurate.

A new chapter in American national life will start when we begin getting orders and decisions from across the water.

Various southern and southwestern states will fight the efforts of union labor to organize their territories.

Chambers of Commerce in Texas and Oklahoma reaffirm their determination to uphold the open shop. A long industrial fight is foreseen.

In New England there are feeble indications of that "Civil War" which Ida Tarbell thinks may be born of prohibition.

After the recent killing of rum runners by Coast Guard men, posters inviting enlistment in the Coast Guard were torn down in Boston.

The government, wisely avoiding conflict, has closed and temporarily abandoned the Boston Coast Guard recruiting station.

There will not be any civil war, and prohibition will stay in the Constitution. But there will be a good deal of unpleasant discussion and shooting.

Two more New York policemen have been suspended for allowing their revolvers to be taken away from them in holdups.

One policeman, who calls for especial sympathy, was held up in a speakeasy, and wounded when the bandits saw that he was a policeman.

As the wounded policeman lay on the floor, one bandit ordered: "Give him another, he's a cop."

A second bandit, one of six, fired a bullet into the policeman's head.

The bandits missed an opportunity for profit when they failed to search the policeman, in addition to shooting him. He wore a money belt containing $250 in currency, one $50 Liberty bond, and five shares of Telephone Company stock.

Heavy fogs in the East tied up shipping, causing great loss, interfered with Atlantic cables, stopped the air mail completely for days.

Perfection of the auto-giro airplane would overcome fog difficulties.

The auto-giro rising perpendicularly above the fog, which never goes up very high, would do its work regardless of weather.

F. C. Chichester, cheerful British pilot, is enroute in a very small "Moth" airplane from London, he left saying to friends, "Cheerio! I am off to Australia."

He hopes to beat the world's record of fifteen days.
Every day there is, in aviation, proof that what men can imagine they will do, even though many be killed doing it.

Landenberger May Appeal Dry Case

William Landenberger, Sharp et al., was found guilty and fined $250 and costs on a charge of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors when arraigned for trial before Mayor John M. Davidson Tuesday afternoon.

Landenberger denied possession of a small quantity of liquor alleged by police to be his property when he was arrested last week. The arrest was made by Patrolmen Jesse G. and Ralph Stoffer.

Landenberger was represented at the trial by Atty. H. L. McCarthy to Lisbon courts on error. Landenberger was released on $500 bond pending appeal of the case or payment of the $250 fine and costs.

Salem Man Speaks At Meeting Soon

Matthews and Broomall will give parts of a summary in recent lessons in horticulture at Ohio State university.

At 1 p. m. a speaker from the Wooster experiment will give a talk. The members are asked to bring specimens of bugs or eggs for him to identify.

Following the election of officers the question box will be opened.

Matthews is president of the society and L. J. Kirk, secretary.

SALEM COUNCIL ORGANIZES FOR YEAR

Hopes Fading For Success Of Naval Meeting

HOOVER STILL HAS HOPES OF GOOD RESULTS

Anglo-French Gap Still Wide As Opening Day Draws Near

OPTIMISM STILL HIGH FOR SOME

President Warns Not To Expect Too Much In Short Time

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Hoover still has high hopes that the London naval conference will succeed in negotiating agreements to materially reduce the world's naval armament in all classes of ships.

It is not too much to say, however, that these hopes are getting dimmer and dimmer as the date for the conference approaches without Great Britain and France apparently coming any closer to reconciling their differences in preliminary exchanges—as the Anglo-American differences were adjusted by President Hoover and Premier MacDonald.

These Anglo-French differences are wide and deep. And upon their reconciliation depends to a great extent the fate of the conference—the conference upon which Mr. Hoover said yesterday hinges "the progress of the peace of the world."

There are a good many pessimists in Washington who do not believe the Anglo-French differences ever will be adjusted at London, at least to the point where Mr. Hoover's hopes of drastic tonnage reduction may be realized.

Maintains Optimism
The president, however, prefers to maintain a more optimistic attitude; more optimistic, in fact, than some of the delegates and experts who are going to London.

"The difficulties of finding a basis of agreement that will be acceptable to five different nations are great, but they are not insuperable," he said in his godsend message to the departing delegation.

It was a warning note, however, that Mr. Hoover sounded in advising the public not to expect too much nor that much too quickly.

"The technology and the complexity of the problem are such that we need hope for no immediate success."

BUDGET WILL BE ORGANIZED

Council Adjourns Until Next Tuesday For Discussions

The budget for the first six months of 1930 will be organized and appropriations for various departments completed at an adjourned meeting of city council next Tuesday night.

Salem's new legislative body met last night for its first meeting of the year and at the recommendation of members of the appropriation and finance committee and old members of the body, the adjourned meeting will be held for a consideration of the budget.

Difficulty in the arrangement of appropriations was explained to the new members of council by Councilmen W. U. Filler, Max Adler and Samuel Kraus, following which President Geo. F. Koonitz adjourned the meeting until next week.

Lack of funds in various departments to meet payrolls of city employees resulted in necessity of taking immediate action in preparing the budget, it was explained. A warrant for the city's share of money it will obtain from the county during the year has already been served on County Auditor E. E. Walker and definite action will be taken at the session next week.

Investigate Police In Elyria Probe

Elyria, O., Jan. 8.—Following a demand by city council, an investigation was launched here today into Elyria's police department.

The probe was asked because of developments arising from a short-escape recently when George Lenko, now an inmate of the Toledo State Hospital for the Insane, disarmed two policemen and started firing their revolvers.

Lenko was finally overpowered and taken into custody.

Threaten Woman

Dayton, O., Jan. 8.—Two men, who allegedly posed as federal prohibition agents and who bound Mrs. Samuel Casson, 37, to a chair and threatened her with a hot poker were being sought by deputy sheriffs today. The men tried to obtain money, she said.

ROME WEDDING UNITES BELGIAN PRINCESS AND ITALIAN THRONE HEIR

Splendor Of Middle Ages Attends Royal Ceremony As Heavily Armed Guards And Policemen Adds Sinister Modern Note

Rome, Jan. 8.—In a magnificent ceremony which carried this twentieth-century city back to the feudal splendor of the middle ages, Crown Prince Umberto, the future king of Italy took his childhood sweetheart for his bride today.

A galaxy of royalty, including kings, queens, princes and princesses from every reigning house of Europe, were present when the heir to the Italian throne was wedded to Princess Marie Jose, beautiful daughter of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium.

But while the princess was being married to the heir to the Italian throne within the palace, there was a sinister note in the streets outside, as heavily armed fascist guards and plain clothes policemen kept a constant watch to see that no anarchist attempt was made.

The discovery of a number of plots directed against the Princess and members of her family, caused the Italian authorities to take extraordinary precautions to prevent any untoward incident. All suspected characters had been rounded up, and all recent visitors from outlying provinces had been thoroughly searched and their identities and reputations checked in order to forestall any attempts at a bombing plot.

With very few exceptions, the marriage was witnessed only by persons of royal blood. For the ceremony which thus linked two of the oldest sovereign dynasties of Europe took place in the tiny Pauline chapel of the Quirinal palace, residence of the Italian royal family.

Approximately 100 persons, all Solons will have keys for chambers

Members of city council will be provided keys for entrance into the council chambers during their two-year terms in office through action taken at the first meeting of the year, Tuesday night.

Solons in past years have experienced difficulty in obtaining entrance into the chamber. It was explained by Councilman W. U. Filler, following which President Geo. F. Koonitz instructed Clerk Thurl Eickstein to take necessary steps in securing keys for all members.

The seven members of council, the president and clerk will all be equipped with keys.

GROUPS PLEDGE COOPERATION IN OFFICIAL WORK

Plea For Economy Given By Council Head In Address

MAYOR DAVIDSON SPEAKS TO SOLONS

Department Heads Talk At Inaugural Meeting Of Legislators

Pledging cooperation and sounding a stirring appeal for the adoption of a high standard of economy for the city during the year's 1930-31, Mayor John M. Davidson and heads of municipal departments at council chambers Tuesday night.

President of Council Geo. F. Koonitz requested cooperative work between all departments in city duties, in his address to council while Mayor Davidson, Clyde R. Reich, service director-elect, and John R. Kerr, safety director, pledged cooperation of their departments with the legislative body.

It was the first meeting of the new year of the council which will bear the responsibility of enacting the city's legislative business for the next two years. Its close was marked by an atmosphere of cooperation and good-will between departmental heads and members of the body, indicating a smooth-working executive machine for the city during the coming 24-months.

Asks For Cooperation.
"I want to appeal, not only to council members, but to all departments of city government for cooperation in handling our public affairs for the coming two years," President Koonitz declared in his opening statement to council.

"Each department is dependent on another department and if we will all pull together we can furnish an efficient and business-like administration."

"Another thing which should be stressed is economy. Not a penny wise, pound foolish, pennywise economy, but rather a policy from which is eliminated unwise or excessive expenditures. We must not lose sight of the fact that to function successfully, our various departments must have the necessary working funds."

Outlines Policies
At all times, he explained, council activities in meetings will be governed by the following:

HELPING THE HEART

The public health aspect of heart disease is the subject treated by the United States Public Health Service in a recent article. A very comprehensive statement has been made concerning the symptoms and treatment of an affliction which is rarely faced bravely and usually not recognized until its manifestations become acute.

Many persons with chronic heart disease maintain a fair condition of health for years under favorable conditions. It must be realized, however, that a diseased heart performs its tasks under a special handicap and certain allowances should be made.

The exercise of any muscle within healthful limits is followed by increased size and power. After the limit is reached, additional exercise, or overstrain causes the muscle to become thinner and weaker and less able to function. In the case of the heart muscle, increase in size and strength in response to the greater demand on the energy in diseased conditions is called "compensation." The process of thinning with lessened ability to function is called "decompensation" and is characterized by breathlessness, pallor and rapid pulse on slight exertion. All treatment of heart disease depends largely on the presence of absence of symptoms of decompensation.

Limiting physical activities, avoiding emotional excitement, rest in bed, avoiding use of drugs, and improved nutrition are the salient points in the treatment of heart disease. Nutrition and rest are the most important; the public health service has discovered a close connection between malnutrition and heart disease.

The public schools are the battle front of heart disease. School nurses, if given the proper co-operation, can discover it in time to treat it properly and save the victim endless suffering and, perhaps, premature death. If recognized before reaching the decompensation stage, the patient need suffer little curtailment of activities other than non-participation in strenuous competition. From the community standpoint, the school nurse and her follow-up work in the home are of infinite value. She should emphasize that every child with a cardiac condition, however mild, should be watched carefully and given positive treatment.

One of the greatest difficulties to overcome in the treatment of heart disease is the unwillingness of its victims to take their condition seriously. It amounts to deliberate evasion of an unpleasant fact. This cowardice must be overcome when it affects the health of children. Intelligent treatment can save them.

Dr. Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard observatory, told a Philadelphia audience a night or two since that the new 200-inch reflecting telescope being constructed for use on Mt. Wilson, California, will probably solve a third of the mysteries of the stellar universe. You never can tell. It may multiply them by three.

It develops that a well-known movie combination has liabilities of $91,000,000. We're going to be frank enough to say that if we had liabilities to that extent we would just naturally be a bit worried.

What Others Say

THE NEW GEOGRAPHY

The program for the convention of the Association of American Geographers, which met recently in Columbus at the Ohio State university, listed foreign investments, Antarctic exploration and national parks among the subjects which came up for discussion. Or, as an advance notice put it "the new geography is to receive serious attention."

This news is both interesting and distressing when you recall how Baltimore shippers were puzzled the other day upon being informed of two steamship sailings from Istanbul for Baltimore. They couldn't find Istanbul on their maps, but after considerable investigation discovered that Istanbul was simply the Turkish version of "Constantinople." Embarrassments like this are an old story to American tourists who have tried without success in Europe to buy railroad tickets to "Vienna." There is, of course, no such city. No continental timetable lists "Vienna." No train announcer ever calls "Vienna." The real name of the place we call "Vienna" is Wien.

The cartographer originally responsible for this adaptation from the German, along with that of "Austria" for Österreich, must have been a singularly prosaic old fellow. For there is certainly much more fascination about Wien than "Vienna," and the same criticism holds good for München (not "Munich"), and for Bruxelles (not "Brussels"), as well as for Istanbul (somebody's "Constantinople").

Perhaps it is too much to expect that our public schools, now thrilling with Americanization, should permit foreign place names to appear in our geography textbooks in their native form—although the National Geographic society has announced that it proposes to issue a map which will be correct in this particular. But it does seem reasonable to have supposed that the Association of American Geographers might have been less interested in the implications of "the new geography" and more concerned with the deficiencies of the old.—The Baltimore Sun.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Your good looks depend to a large extent upon the appearance and condition of your skin. A perfect complexion is of more importance than perfect features. Everyone admires a beautiful skin.

Absolute cleanliness of the skin is the first consideration. Your complexion cannot be kept clean by merely dabbing a little water upon it. Plenty of soap of a fine quality is essential in order to cleanse the pores of the skin and to keep it in good condition. An abundance of water is required to wash away the dirt and germs which accumulate in the day's work.

A general bath should be taken at least twice a week. But in these days, most people could not think of letting a day pass without a bath. A brisk rub will stimulate the circulation of the blood, and a bad complexion will show amazing improvement with outside cleanliness. That is not all, for cleanliness within is also essential. You cannot have a beautiful complexion if your system is clogged with waste materials from undigested food, or poisoned by the evil effects of constipation. You should drink plenty of water, not too much at mealtime, but before or after eating. This will help to cleanse the system.

There are germs in the air and germs in the dirt with which we are in constant contact. Of course it is the skin that suffers first.

The skin is one of the most important organs of elimination of the body. The dead cells are constantly cast off, carrying with them the waste substances of the body as well as the dirt and germ accumulation. Many poisons of the system are thrown off through the skin. You can see why the skin should be kept in good condition. Cleanliness is the great essential to its proper action.

Physical exercise of a vigorous nature stimulates very greatly all the functions and organs of the body. The heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, bowels, the mysterious "ductless" glands, and the skin all are stimulated by energetic exercise.

You have often noticed how much better your skin looks after a vigorous walk out in the bracing air, or after a strenuous game in the open. The air is a tonic for the skin and nobody is going to look or feel well who does not take his daily exercise. If you are the fortunate owner of a car, do not let the purchase cause you to forget the normal uses of your feet.

A good complexion means that you must avoid excessive sweets, fats and starches. Eat plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables. It is good to drink milk with your meals if you like it.

Rest and sleep are great restorers. In a restless age we disregard the warnings of our bodies either to abstain from taking too much of the wrong food, or for lack of rest and sleep. Abundant sleep has almost instant good effect on the skin.

Advancing age will bring wrinkles. Well, many a beautiful face is made more beautiful by the lines chased by time. Character is shown by these signs. But everyone wants to look as young as he feels.

Cleanliness is the first requisite to a good skin, and good health depends upon this one thing to a great extent. It works both ways.

Book Review

By Ray Schilling

Ireland, By Donn Byrne

"Ireland, the rock whence I was hewn" written by Donn Byrne first appeared as an article in the National Geographic Magazine in 1927. After his tragic death in the spring of last year his wife published it in book form.

The book itself is delightful. It concerns the country and the habits of the Irish people, as well as some very interesting bits of Irish history that we probably overlooked as students when Ireland was a subject for study.

Did you know that Ireland has the worst haunted house in the British Isles? The lady of the castle tells the story herself—how she felt two cold clammy hands grasp her shoulders, and upon turning around beheld the awful sight.

All of Donn Byrne's books are fascinating. He adds poetry and music to the most every day words and gives you a desire to set sail for Ireland and learn more about these Irish people.

Soldiers of Misfortune

By Sir Percival Christopher Wren

"I save and I lose" was the one thousand year old motto of the House of Madeville-Belleme. The head of this noble house, rather than lose an excellent cook, had married the good woman, when she gave notice. Then came loss of fortune and the senior Sir Ocho's death. Young Ocho and his cockney lady mother return to her sister's house, the Brigues.

Ocho then becomes Bob Blane and under the tutelage of Joe Mummery, the heavy weight champion of England, learns the art of boxing. After a bitter disappointment with the hero with three of his cronies as members of the French Foreign Legion, it is here that the best scene appears. Ocho boxes M-Bongu of the Tenth Senegalese, a huge negro, more ape than man. Mr. Wren has given himself away in this fight for he puts all his love of the sport into his characters. Mr. Wren made Beau Geste immortal and he hasn't disappointed us in this new book "Soldiers of Misfortune."

Commission Split Seems Probable

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Hoover's law enforcement commission, divided on various phases of the prohibition issue, apparently is getting ready to "take public cognizance of persistent reports that it is 'hopelessly split'."

Chairman Wickersham indicated today that a public statement—one of the few the commission has made in eight months of meeting behind closed doors—will shortly be made.

The commission held a lengthy conference yesterday at which it is understood the prohibition issue, and the opposing views of the membership, was threshed out at some length.

AERIAL SEARCH AGAIN DELAYED

Severe Northern Storms
Holding Aviators
Earthbound

Fairbanks, Alaska, Jan. 8.—One of the worst storms of the season held the Arctic region in its grip today and frustrated all attempts to continue the search for Capt. T. M. (Pat) Reid, commander of the Eielson relief expedition, missing since Saturday.

Continued silence from the North Bay region where Reid and his two mechanics, James Hutchinson and William Hughes, disappeared in a snow storm, increased apprehension.

Reports from North Cape, Siberia where Lieut. Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Berland disappeared Nov. 9 said that a fierce blizzard was raging between there and Nome.

The airplane which Reid piloted was lost after it started for Nome, Alaska, to join in the search for Eielson, a plane piloted by Matt Nieminen left at the same time and was forced to land at Nulato when the snow became too dense.

Telephone Alarms
Robbers In Store

Berlin Center, Jan. 8.—Six men attempted a systematic robbery at the L. E. Hawkins general store here, but were frightened away when Mr. Hawkins had the telephone operator ring into the store. A burglar alarm warned the members of the Hawkins family as soon as the men entered the building.

After intimidating the front door men separated, one going to the post office annex and the others to the candy, tobacco and dry goods and grocery departments. When the telephone rang they ran from the front door to an automobile. The loot included $50 worth of overalls and confectionery worth about $10.

A deputy sheriff from Youngstown was called, but no trace could be found of the robbers.

Family Arrested On Bootleg Charges

Cleveland, Jan. 8.—Nicholas Delmonico, reputed chief of an Ashtabula, O., bootleg ring, his wife, Rosa, and their son, Frank, were held in county jail today following their arraignment yesterday on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law.

According to federal officials here, the Delmonicos were recently brought to Ashtabula from Warren, O., to manufacture and peddle bootleg liquor in competition with the ring headed by former councilman Nick Corrado, now serving time in Atlanta federal penitentiary.

When arraigned before Commissioner Martin J. Monahan, the trio pleaded not guilty. Bail for Delmonico was set at $3,500 and for his wife and son at $2,500.

BANK LOOTED; CASH STOLEN

Robbery Is Fifth In The Area In 3 Months'
Period Of Time

Tiffin, O., Jan. 8.—Authorities today continued their search for the three bandits who, late yesterday afternoon perpetrated the fifth bank robbery in Northwestern Ohio in the past three months, when they held up the Republic bank at Republic, near here, and escaped with between $800 and $1,000 in cash.

Miss Ressa Robinson, assistant cashier of the bank, was alone in the establishment at the time. Two of the bandit entered the bank and ordered the girl to open the vault.

The assistant cashier declared that she was unable to do so, and the bandits scooped up all of the money in sight and fled.

A small coupe, which was driven by the third bandit, was the trio's means of escape. They were reported to have fled toward Tiffin and were reported to have been seen on the outskirts of the city, but police lost the trail there.

All of the bandits were clad in overalls, sweaters and caps. One was about 16 years of age, according to Miss Robinson.

Other banks which have been held up recently include the Bradner, Vanlie, Stony Ridge and Rising Sun Banks. The latter has been held up twice.

Used Big Wrench
To Slug Employer

Cleveland, Jan. 8.—Charged with delinquency and robbery in connection with an attack on Mrs. Abby Pennell, wife of a prominent Cleveland attorney, last Dec. 21, Mrs. Virginia Axton, 16, of Akron, was being held here today.

Mrs. Axton was arrested in her home at Akron where she was traced by Credit association officials after she had allegedly obtained merchandise in a Cleveland department store through false pretenses.

Mrs. Pennell was slugged over the head with a monkey wrench, strapped in a towel by a woman whom she had employed as a maid. The woman fled, taking $20 and a valuable muskrat coat.

Admission that she was the "maid" who slugged Mrs. Pennell, has been obtained from Mrs. Axton, according to police, who said the girl told them she became infuriated when Mrs. Pennell ordered her to scrub floors and do other work which she had not contracted to do.

Snatch Purses

Columbus, O., Jan. 8.—Two pedestrians were victimized by "pursesnatchers" last night and a third attempted purse-snatching episode was reported. Loss was small.

WANT TO LOOK YOUNG?

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They help bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c, 60c.

BOY KILLED AS TRAIN HITS BUS

School Bus Again On Crossing In Path
Of Engine

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 8.—A four-year-old boy is dead today and two other persons are recovering from injuries as a result of a bus-train accident yesterday afternoon, when a switch engine struck a school bus at Newton, near here.

Only three persons were in the bus at the time of the crash. It was enroute to the Terrace Park High school where it was to have been boarded by school officials.

Had the bus been filled with students, the recent tragedy at Shreve, where seven boys were killed and nine others were injured, would probably have been reenacted, it was claimed.

Hugh Bainum, 4, a son of the driver, Allen Bainum, was caught beneath the wreckage and crushed to death. Imogene Bainum, 19, a daughter of the driver, was badly bruised about the legs. The driver was also bruised.

He said he failed to see the switch engine. Rain obscured the driver's vision.

2 EXAMINATIONS FOR OHIO BANKS

State Institutions Are Affected By New Policies

Columbus, O., Jan. 8.—Announcement that state banks will be examined twice this year was made today by O. C. Gray, state banking superintendent. It has been the practice to examine these banks only once each year.

The new policy, Gray believes, will tend to "reduce the number of bank failures to a minimum and will benefit each bank."

"The action of the state banking department is based upon the experience of other states where more frequent examinations have resulted in an almost total elimination of bank failures," said Gray. "New Jersey has not had a failure for many years, due to this system."

More frequent examinations, it was pointed out, will be beneficial to the banks through the constructive advice of the examiners who are able to suggest improvements to the banking officials.

Superintendent Gray said the present staff of 45 examiners will be enlarged, if necessary to complete the examinations during the year. The Ohio legislature, at its last session, approved the policy of more frequent examinations of state banks.

BUS OVERLOADED REPORT STATES

State Investigator Finds 12 Too Many Were On Vehicle

Columbus, O., Jan. 8.—Charges that the Jack Rabbit bus, which was wrecked in a collision with a truck near Bellevue Friday when 10 persons were hurt, four seriously, was overcrowded were contained in the report of the state utilities commission which had completed its probe today.

John V. Ryan, who conducted the investigation, said that the bus was overcrowded to the extent of 12 persons.

The records of the utilities commission show no Jack Rabbit bus has a capacity of over 33 passengers, while it is noted that the bus in question was carrying approximately 45 passengers," said Ryan's report.

The inspector suggested that the Interstate Highway Limited Bus company be summoned before the state utilities commission to explain the alleged irregularity.

NEWS AND PROGRAMS

Great Talent Array
One of the greatest arrays of operatic and theatrical stars ever assembled in an Ohio studio will furnish the entertainment for a two-hour radio program to be broadcast directly from WTAM Cleveland, Friday evening, Jan. 10, by the Standard Oil Company of Ohio in commemoration of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the company by John D. Rockefeller.

Phillips Carlin, popular R. C. A. announcer who has won fame over the air by his heart-throbbing detail descriptions of fights, football games and other events, will act as master of ceremonies of the program which will start at 9 and last until 11 o'clock.

Such opera stars as Richard Bonelli, baritone, and Alice Mock, soprano, both of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, and Mario Chamlee, tenor, and Merle Alcock, contralto, members of the famous New York Metropolitan Opera company, will take part in the elaborate program to be presented, singing a number of the popular opera selections. Most of these singers have already won a place in the hearts of radio listeners through their broadcasts over nation-wide net work from New York and Chicago.

Gene and Glenn, popular songsters, who formerly teamed with Ford, forming a novelty trio, will be back on the air as a part of the monster program and their popular ditties will again be heard by radio fans.

Male Chorus on Program.
A male chorus of 16 men under the direction of Charles Dawes, director of the Cleveland Orpheus Male Choir, with Russell Wise, tenor as soloist, has also been secured by the Standard Oil Company as a part of the great series of entertainments. A 25-piece classical orchestra and a 55-piece jazz band is to furnish the music for the occasion and render a number of selections of classical and popular songs.

Negotiations are under way to bring a galaxy of other popular radio stars to Cleveland for the special broadcast and it is expected that the anniversary two-hour program will be unprecedented.

W. T. Holliday, president of the Standard Oil Company of Ohio, who is organizing the 60th birthday party and who will preside at the huge banquet at the Hollenden hotel, preceding the radio program and at which a number of the radio acts will be previewed, extends a cordial welcome to everyone throughout Ohio and other parts of the United States to take an active part in the celebration by listening in on the mammoth radio review.

Leaders of the oil industry from all over the United States will be in Cleveland to attend the banquet and will take part in the great celebration making the 60th anniversary of the Standard Oil Company of Ohio, which was founded by John D. Rockefeller, Jan. 10, 1875, and which has grown to lead the world in the oil industry.

The Old Gold—Paul Whiteman hour on Tuesday evening, January 14, from 9 to 10 P. M. over the Columbia network, will bring to the air not only the King of Jazz and his incomparable orchestra, but also a famous guest star in the person of Mary Nolan whose picture, "The Shanghai Lady," is one of the most popular current releases.

The third group in the Whiteman program will be music from "The Shanghai Lady," in the course of which Miss Nolan will appear. In addition, those other standbys of Whiteman programs, the Rhythm Boys, Bing Crosby, Jack Fulton, and Mildred Bailey, will sing individually and in combination, while the purely orchestral numbers, led by the jazz maestro himself, will include many of the latest dance hits and current musical comedy selections.

The federal radio commission was called upon today by Senator Dill (D) of Washington, to revoke the broadcasting license of Station KWKH at Shreveport, La., of its owner because of his use of "coarse language" on the air.

Dill read a telegram to the senate from L. C. Watrous, of Minneapolis, complaining against "constant cursing" on the air by the operator of the Shreveport station. Dill said he also had heard the broadcaster using obscene language. The radio law makes it a crime to swear over a radio.

VOTE RECOUNT MAKES CHANGE

Wellsville Councilman Is Re-seated After Check On Ballots

Wellsville, Jan. 8.—Charles S. Peters, Republican Second ward councilman, who on the face of returns at the November election, was defeated by John Grafton, Democrat, was re-seated following a councilmanic recount of the votes.
The November election gave Grafton a slim margin of 283 to 252. Following the recount, Monday night, Peters was back in office again by a vote of 258 to 246, picking up 16 votes that were not credited to him before. In addition, there were 80 ballots cast in the ward which indicated no preference for councilman.
The recount followed an 11th hour move by Grafton to obtain an injunction in common pleas court Monday afternoon. Judge W. F. Jones ruled he had no jurisdiction and that council alone had the right to judge the qualifications of its members.
The recount was conducted under the supervision of James S. Hilbert, chief of the county election board. More than 200 jammed the city hall building to witness the ceremonies.
When the count was finished Grafton congratulated his opponent.

Coolidge Arrives In Southland

St. Petersburg, Fla., Jan. 8.—Calvin Coolidge, accompanied by Mrs. Coolidge, arrived here this morning along with 250 other officers and directors and agents of the New York Life Insurance company, to attend the company's annual conference.

Traveling with the Coolidges were Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life, and Mrs. Kingsley.
Despite the earliness of his arrival at 7:30 a. m., several thousand tourists and residents were at the train and gave the former president an ovation as he stepped from the car.
The Coolidges paused to pose for photographers, and left immediately for a hotel where the ex-president posed for the news reels but smilingly refused to say anything other than "I want breakfast."

NAVAL PARITY

late and quick results," he said. "To complete the conference in three or four months would be in itself a great accomplishment and we should not expect any hurried conclusions."
Secretary of State Stimson already has given tangible evidence he expects no speedy agreement by renting a house in the country near London where he can settle down for a long stay.
President Hoover's description of the London gathering as "the most important international conference in a great many years, and probably the most important for many years to come" found a ready echo in official and diplomatic quarters.

"HEARTS IN EXILE"

At The State

The entire interior of the famous Cathedral of the Holy Message in Moscow, Russia, was reproduced recently at Hollywood, and is one of the most elaborate church settings ever constructed for motion pictures.

The studio technical departments worked from a number of detail photographs of this magnificent edifice, which is one of the finest in Eastern Europe, and erected a facsimile which is complete down to the finest detail. The great screen flanking the altar is especially ornate, and there are also massive pillars decorated with highly colored figures of the saints of the Greek Catholic Church.

This setting was created especially for Dolores Costello's latest production, "Hearts in Exile," which is at the State.

Many of the scenes which occur in it deal with the wedding of Miss Costello, as a peasant girl, and James Kirkwood, as the Austrian nobleman, Baron Sergei Palma. Eighty singers, dressed in the national costume of the country, chant Russian hymns while the pair are united according to the colorful ceremony of the Greek church, and the whole forms a sequence of unusual interest.

Other prominent roles in "Hearts in Exile" are played by Grant Withers, James Kirkwood, George Fawcett, David Torrence and Olive Tell. Michael Curtiz directed.

"SCANDAL"

At The Royal

Laura La Plante will be seen at the Royal for the last time tonight in a dramatic, talking picture entitled "Scandal." It is based on "The Haunted Lady," a gripping society scandal story by Adela Rogers St. Johns. Universal has made it into a talk-film of unusual intensity, with Huntley Gordon, John Boles and Jane Winton among the leading principals.

Wesley Ruggles, a veteran impresario of motion picture suspense and entertainment, directed the picture. It gives Miss La Plante a new type of role, differing considerably from her parts in such mystery stories as "The Cat and the Canary" and "The Last Warning," and from her former comedy-drama roles. Also, she made it after completing her great role as Magnolia in "Show Boat" with its months of training and varied characterizations.

The story tells how a girl of moderate circumstances rises above her position and marries a wealthy society favorite. Then comes a hand from the past to drag her back and she finally is forced to risk her husband's respect by baring a scandalous situation, or see a third party go to prison unjustly. How she faces this decision makes one of the strongest scenes ever screened.

Midway Officers Are Named; Many Attend

Midway grange Farmers institute, which closed a two-day session Tuesday afternoon at the grange hall, south of Leetonia, elected officers for the ensuing year.

Harry Holloway, Leetonia, R. D., was elected chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stiller are vice chairman and secretary, respectively.

The executive committee is composed of Clark Halverstad, Dallas Stiller and Mrs. Clyde Temple.

W. H. Matthews, of Salem, was judge in the apple exhibit, and gave a talk. William McD. Stone, of Atwater, one of the state speakers, judged the corn on exhibit and the potatoes were judged by B. S. Graham, of Leetonia.

Including all sessions there was an attendance of between 400 and 500 people. The Monday evening session had the largest number present. Another institute probably will be held next year, if state aid can be secured, or other arrangements made.

Some one is telling us that women are greater go-getters than men. Of course they are. When women and men are concerned women are usually the getters and men the gotten.

Greenford Pythian Sisters In Meeting

Mrs. M. C. Clay installed the new officers of the Greenford Pythian Sisters at a meeting Tuesday evening at the hall.

Names of the officers are: Paul Chief, Mrs. Lottie Slagle; most excellent chief, Mrs. Mary Pettit; excellent senior, Mrs. E. L. Bush; excellent junior, Mrs. Lee Crum; manager, Mrs. Carl Clay; mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Garth Coy; mistress of finance, Mrs. Ella Bush; guard, Mrs. Harold Feicht; protector, Mrs. Willis Houts; delegate to grand lodge, Mrs. Carl Clay; alternate, Mrs. L. Fred Dwyer; trustee, Mrs. C. W. Clay.

After the installation the social committee served an oyster supper.

Steal Ballots

Portsmouth, O., Jan. 8.—Ohio authorities today are cooperating with Kentucky authorities for the thief or thieves who entered the board of elections office at Greenup, Kentucky, across the Ohio river from here, and stole two ballot boxes, which contained votes to decide an election contest by a recount.

Printz Klub Tossers Succumb To Attack Of Electric Furnace

Leaders Annex Fourth Straight Win; Motors Lose To Art Jewelers

The Golden Eagle cage combine must win its game with the McArthur Florists to stay in the running with the flashy Electric Furnace team for the city Class A league title as a result of the furnace's decisive 28-16 victory over the Printz Klub at the Memorial gym Tuesday night.

The Golden Eagles have a record of three straight wins in the circuit and are tied for first place with the Electric Furnace team which registered its fourth consecutive win of the league schedule last night by trouncing the Klubmen.

The Art Jewelers handed the Grate Motors a 30-17 beating in Tuesday's prelim. Both teams have only an outside chance for the league flag.

The Printz Klub threatened several times to hand the furnace team its first defeat of the season but the winners flashed a strong offensive attack in the last quarter which snowed under the opposition. The furnace led throughout the game but was never certain of victory until the middle of the fourth session.

The Quakers clash with the strong Hub Club of Hubbard at Damascus Thursday night. The Salem First Baptist church team meets the Damascus Eighth grade team in the first prelim while the Sebring and Beloit Ex-Highs in the second.

"Konjola Gave Results That Astonished Me"

Cincinnati Man Happy To Tell What New And Different Medicine Did For Him

MR. ALEX JONES

Results are what count, and Konjola can be counted on for results. Consider the experience of Mr. Alex Jones, 225 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, who says of Konjola:

"Konjola gave results in my case that surely astonished me. For four years I suffered agony with muscular rheumatism, and was in bed for weeks at a time. Indigestion and constipation added to my misery. Every morning found me tired out and exhausted. Medicine after medicine failed me. A friend insisted that I take Konjola; she said she was sure that it was the medicine I needed. And Konjola proved to be that—the medicine I should have had in the first place. In four weeks this remarkable medicine corrected all of my ills. I have regained all the weight I lost, and am feeling fine. No wonder Konjola is known as the medicine with more than a million friends."

Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. H. Lease drug stores (Mr. Kaminsky) and by all the best druggists throughout this entire section.—Adv.

quarter was 6-0 and at the half it was 12-4. The third quarter found the Klub crew staging a comeback in which they outscored the furnace but it was unable to continue its attack in the last period.

Ferguson led the scoring with four field goals and a foul for a nine-point total.

Andy Hann led the scoring in the preliminary, scoring 18 points for the Jewelers who had an easy time of it with the Motors. Summaries of the two games follow:

Rated high in Lisbon fight circles and scholastic work, Tony Rubino, 16-year-old member of the graduating class of 1930 of David Anderson High school, plans to enter college next fall and work his way through with his knowledge of the fistic arts.

Rubino, weighing 135 pounds, has already participated in eight fights and won six by knockouts. He has been a resident of Lisbon for years. Two of his eight bouts were in Canton, two in Sebring and four in Alliance.

THE DAY In Sports

CRUCIAL TILT THURSDAY FLORIDA GETS FIGHT PREVIEW SLAMS SPORT PLAN

If ever a crowd jammed the Memorial gym for a basketball game it should do so Thursday night when the McArthur Florists clash with the Golden Eagle in the game which will go a long way in deciding what city league Class A team will be adjusted winner of the championship title. The Florists have bolstered their lineup considerably since losing their lone game to the Electric Furnace team while the Golden Eagle team doesn't need any strengthening to be considered one of the circuit's best.

The Golden Eagle team has won three straight games and has run up a record total of points; but as yet hasn't really been tried in tough competition. In the Posies it will find the toughest type of adversary, one which has to win in order to maintain its standing as a contender for the title.

Solbert Greenberger's quintet too, has plenty to fight for in that it must win to keep even with the Electric Furnace which last night won its fourth straight game. A real battle is anticipated, one which should draw several hundred court bugs to the Memorial building.

Well from latest reports it appears that a big heavyweight fight is finally scheduled at last. It appears that Jack Sharkey, loquacious Houston gob who undoubtedly is the leading contender for heavy laurels, is to meet Phil Scott, rambling Londoner in a 10-round bout at Miami, Fla., on Feb. 17.

How well this arrangement will be greeted by fight fans is a matter of conjecture but it is a safe bet that promoters could readily find a better opponent for the Bostoner than the Englishman who as yet hasn't shown any real fistic ability. It appears George Godfrey Leiper, Pa. assassin is completely out of the picture while Tuffy Griffiths, despite his decisive win over Johnny Risko, hasn't the drawing power. It is supposed that Scott has but no one knows where it has come from. Not even Tex Rickard, as great a ballyhoo artist as he was, could get fight experts to believe that Scott merits a high rating in pugilism.

And now comes another attack on intercollegiate athletics but this time it isn't the Carnegie Foundation. President A. L. Lowell of Harvard university does the censuring act on this occasion, going as far as to say that the American plan of athletics is not for the best of sporting activities.

The rub in this educator's statement is that he is right for he shows how colleges today are no longer emphasizing the cultivation of the physical excellence of the individual but are concentrating on the entertainment of the spectator.

He contrasts the difference in attitude toward sports of the ancient Greeks and Romans, the former emphasizing the cultivation of physical excellence and the latter entertainment of the spectator. "Is not the Greek principle preferable to the Roman for our colleges?" he asked.

But with our frequent intercollegiate games, with the attracting of huge crowds of short intervals, and continuous publicity, are we not slipping into the Roman attitude of mind?

James Este, 30-year-old Peoria (Ill.) truck driver has issued warning to Primo Carnera and Vittorio Campolo, giants of the fistic ring to watch out for their prestige. He only stands seven feet when erect on bare feet and tips the scales at a few pounds over the 200 mark, avoiddups. It seems that managers go more for freaks now than they do for real boxing talent.

Mexican statesmanship often learns to look upon the discovery of a more or less dangerous plot only as a part of the day's work.

CAUSE OF CHILL IN WARM ROOMS EASILY TRACED

Starbuck Brothers Show Cause Is Lack Of Air Content

Older people especially frequently complain about feeling cold during the winter season, even though the thermometer shows the room temperature to be in the eighties. This paradox of feeling chilled when there is an excessive amount of heat is easily explained, and its easy cure, according to the Starbuck Bros., Salem tinners and installers of furnaces.

Overheated rooms create a feeling of discomfort and chill due to the fact that the humidity content of the air has been practically depleted, and to appease its natural affinity for moisture, the dry hot air draws upon every possible source of moisture. This includes the humans who may occupy the room, and the unusually rapid evaporation of bodily moisture causes that feeling of chilliness and discomfort. Often forced firing of the heating plant is resorted to in an effort to overcome this cold feeling, whereas properly vaporized air would obviate the discomfort and consequent desire for higher temperatures. J. R. Starbuck explained today.

It is the consensus of opinion of air-conditioning experts that a comfortable home temperature is 70 degrees, provided the relative humidity is 45 per cent. To maintain this humidity content it is necessary to evaporate much more water daily than has heretofore been considered ample, and the latest type of vapor-air warm air heating plants adequately solve this problem. For they are equipped with a humidifying device capable of evaporating 20 or more gallons of water each day. Besides providing the humidity indispensable to comfort, this device makes possible a definite saving in fuel, as it is unnecessary to burn the extra fuel needed to maintain the high, dry-air temperature human beings demand to provide the feeling of comfort that is to be had from properly humidified air of lower temperature.

Salem Veterinarian In Profession For Forty-Year Period

Dr. Benjamin C. Johnson, active in the veterinary surgeon business in Salem for more than 40 years, is one of the best known surgeons in Columbiana county.

Dr. Johnson is one of the oldest active members of his profession in the entire eastern Ohio district. He was born in Butler township, Columbiana county, in 1868. He is the son of Dr. Charles and Eliza Johnson.

His boyhood was practically all spent in this city and he immediately became interested in veterinary work with his father. He has since that time practically devoted all his time to the profession. His father, since deceased, was also well known throughout the district as a veterinarian.

He is considered an expert in veterinarian surgery and specializes in sterility work in cattle. He is located at East Second st., formerly known as 32 East Green. His phone is 1616.

Organization Plans For New Candy Stores Announced By Owner Of Hendricks' Shoppe

Plans for a new candy store organization with headquarters in this city, were announced by J. W. Hendricks, of Hendricks' Candy Shoppe, South Lincoln ave., today.

Hendricks stated that plans are under way for the establishment of stores in Alliance, Canton and Akron, in addition to the local store. The new stores will be known as the "Red Shanty Candy Stores," a name adopted from a copyrighted box devised by Hendricks.

The new stores, if the plan materializes, will be just what the name implies. They will be located in establishments built like red shanties and will handle a more complete line of candies and nuts than any other organization of its kind.

POPULAR DRINK MADE IN SALEM

Knepper Bottling Works
Producer Of Coca-Cola
In Local Plant

Coca-Cola, one of the most widely known drinks on the modern market, is manufactured by the Salem Bottling company, South Lundy ave., under the management of Frank H. Knepper.

The Salem Bottling works offers fine service in delivering its products to dealers quickly and punctually and is one of the leading business establishments of the city, both industrially and commercially.

The company's plant is equipped with all modern, up-to-date bottling and drink manufacturing devices and does not limit its production to Coca-Cola. Frey cities, some much larger than Salem, which have included in their industries a bottling concern, can claim a plant which is as completely equipped as the Salem company.

The plant annually is given high approval by state sanitary officials because of its sanitation. It is declared one of the most efficient plants in eastern Ohio.

Coca-Cola and other drinks made at the plant are not only used for thirst-quenchers, Knepper points out in explaining their popularity. A beverage when properly made, is identical to a food product and contains many life-giving substances which produce energy and aid in the building up of bodies of both children and parents.

The method used in manufacturing pop will be described by Knepper in a future article on this page.

BATTIN STATION OFFERS SERVICE TO CAR OWNERS

Selection Of Best Oil,
Gasoline Essential
To Car's Motor

One gallon or 20—the service is always the same at the Community Service station, East State st. Virgil Battin, owner of the concern announced today. Every class of service needed by an automobile is always available in every respect.

It's service that counts, Battin states, and if any motorist drives up to his station, very suitably located, and asks the attendants to wipe off the windshield it is done with as much attention as if a request was made for a large quantity of gasoline and oil.

Battin's attendants realize the value in satisfying patrons and give all work connected with the station with thoughtful consideration that has resulted in making the station one of the most popular in the district.

Proper Care Essential
At this time, more than at any other time of the year, when the weather is so changeable and it is liable to be freezing the morning after a nice, cool night, there is a necessity of being careful in types of gas and oil used, Battin explained.

Consequently, he states, it is worth the trouble of affording the auto every available service, especially in the oiling and greasing and furnishing the car with the best gas. Battin's gasoline always gives a winning eagerness to the machine's motor and develops in it suspected of possessing. It vaporizes completely, gives the engine much more power and pickup and doesn't cost any more.

The motor car is an all-year-round institution any more but it must be given more than ordinary care during the cold weather period and the motorist can start in the right place by purchasing satisfactory gasoline.

Better starting, better running, better all-around operation and consequently less wear and tear on the motor are the results.

Austrian Military Plans Sell Low

Vienna, Jan. 7.—From the Innsbruck office of the Brigadier General Walther Kirsch important plans concerning the Austro-Italian frontiers were recently stolen by alleged Italian spies. A non-commissioned officer of the Innsbruck garrison is suspected of having stolen and sold the documents to an Italian emissary for four hundred Austrian schillings—less than sixty dollars.

Glasgow Man Seeks Great U. S. Estate

Glasgow, Jan. 8.—Richard Andrews, 56-year-old Glasgow laborer, employed by Glasgow Electricity Corporation, claims that he is the heir of one of the most famous copper kings of the United States.

With his brothers, Andrews is attempting to prove his title to property left by John Andrews, of Montana, who left $70,000,000 in addition to property and other assets worth another $10,000,000.

John Andrews left Lisburn, County Down, Ireland for America about 80 years ago. He started to make money in Utah by rearing sheep. Later he turned his attention to Montana. The great copper boom was in this that he made his millions.

Until a short time before he died Andrews wrote regularly to his relatives at home, but it was not until after his death at Butte, Montana, that the existence of his fortune was known on this side.

Since that time correspondence has taken place between the legal representatives of Richard Andrews and the United States with a view to establishing his claim to the fortune. Another of the dead millionaires alleged nephews lives in Glasgow, while two others are in Belfast and Lisburn.
